With Wash Johnston

Col. H. C. Sanford Wants to Walk.

Owes Wash a Big Debt of Gratitude

For His Work at Green Township Primaries.

More About the Dam That Was Built on Sand.

An enthusiastic Hannaiter said to Col. H. C. Sanford the other day: "Sanford, what in the deuce are you talking through the columns of the DEMOCRAT for?"

It is not necessary to repeat Col. Sanford's answer, but those who know him best can easily imagine. Mr. Sanford does as he pleases, does the bidding of none, and treats DEMOCRAT reporters with the same courtesy as those who represent Republican papers. He is big hearted and genial, thoroughly appreciating the ludicrous phase connected with his being placed in charge of one of the committees on arrangements for Roosevelt Day, after those who had conferred the empty honor had treacherously defeated him in his candidacy for a more substantial one.

In speaking of Roosevelt Day with a reporter for the DEMOCRAT Wednesday evening, Col. Sanford said: "Yes, we are going to have a big day here Saturday, big crowds, and I've got but one request: that is that Wash Johnston and myself be permitted to walk arm and arm in the parade."

"But—"

"Hold on there! 'As water boss I refuse to utter another word.' It is very doubtful whether Mr. Sanford's request to walk with Wash Johnston will be acceded to. Wash did some funny business against Sanford's campaign for representative, it is claimed, and Mr. Sanford suggests that Wash should be made to pay over to the state $500 as penalty for his foolishness in founding a big mill dam in sand.

A meeting of the Emergency Committee, whose duty will be to look after the comfort of those who become sick on Roosevelt Day, or to be on hand in case of accident, met at Republican headquarters Wednesday night and arranged their plans of procedure.

Among the members of the committee are these physicians: H. C. Theiss, J. V. Cleaver, E. O. Leberman, E. S. Underwood, G. M. Todd, A. W. Jones, A. S. Sherman, E. A. Montenyohl, W. A. Sackett, H. D. Taggart, E. S. Miller, D. S. Bowman, A. K. Fouser, C. T. Parks, E. B. Foltz, H. H. Jacobs.

Parks', Billows' and Kasson's ambulance wagons will also be in the service of the committee. The ambulance wagons will be in the parade to Grace Park, so as to be handy in case any one should get hurt along the line or become sick. During the rest of the day the wagons will be located as follows: Parks', on South Main st., at Akron Grocery company's store, telephone 379; Kasson's, at the Empire House, telephone 116; Billows' at their place of business, telephone 71.

Advices from the northern part of the state are of one variety regarding the Jones candidacy, says the Columbus Press: "It is becoming more and more apparent that while Colonel Dick was having his henchmen send in petitions to Jones imploring him to get into the fight independently he was simply driving nails into the political coffin of the"

BRICK

Struck John P. Mahoney On the Nose.

Hurled Through a Saloon Window—Akron Man Injured.

John P. Mahoney, of 198 North Broadway, employed at the Pacific restaurant, North Howard st., was struck on the nose with a brick at Cleveland Wednesday night and painfully injured.

His nose was smashed, bones being broken in several places. Upon returning to Akron, Mr. Mahoney was taken to the office of Dr. Harry Todd, who dressed the injuries. Mahoney was in a saloon, near the foot of the hill on Commercial st., when someone outside attempted to hit another man in the saloon. The brick was thrown through a window and its striking Mahoney was an accident. The cash register of the saloon was smashed to pieces.

NEW YARD

Being Constructed For the Erie at Old Forge—Improvements.

Superintendent C. A. Allen and Civil Engineer W. B. Kimball of Galion, officials on the Erie road, were in the city today.

They report that the work of double tracking between Galion and Kent and Kent and Akron is moving along rapidly. Between Galion and Kent large crews of men are working day and night. A big steam shovel is being operated along that section of the road and two more will be put on in a few days.

Mr. Allen said that the double track between Kent and Akron would likely be completed within 60 days. The Erie's new yard, in the vicinity of Old Forge, will also be completed in about 60 days. Division supervisor F. J. Moser has a force of 90 men working in the yard at present. When completed there will be about two and a half miles of track in the yard. A half mile of track has already been laid.

MANAGER BEILSTEIN

Was Cheered By His Company's Akron Employees on Cleveland Public Square.

Mr. L. E. Beilstein, general manager of the Akron lines of the Northern Ohio Traction company, was cheered upon the Public Square at Cleveland Wednesday night by the Akron employees of the Traction company, who were in Cleveland to attend "The Drummer Boy of Shiloh."

The Akron employees lost no opportunity to assure their Cleveland fellow workmen that they were being treated all right by the Akron officials.

Cars were held at the Valley depot until 2:15 a.m. for the accommodation of the Akron men returning from Cleveland.

TROLLEY PARTY.

Reserve Corps Class Enjoyed Banquet at Barborton Inn.

The Reserve Corps class of the First M. E. Sunday school, of which Miss Maria Parsons is teacher, indulged in a trolley party to Barborton Wednesday night and partook of supper at the Barborton Inn. The class has a membership of 145, and 60 of the number were in the party, some going on a special and others on one of the regular cars.

An informal program was enacted, toasts being responded to by the following named persons: Mrs. S. S. Clark, Miss Maria Parsons, J. F. Barnhart, Rev. F. C. Haddock, D. E. Wheeler, James Harter and J. P. Dice.

LARGE CROWD

Went From Akron to Attend Strikers' War Drama.

Six hundred members of the Akron unions, accompanied by the K.O.T.M. band, went to Cleveland, Wednesday night to attend the "Drummer Boy of Shiloh," presented by the striking street car men.

A special train of ten coaches, was run over the Valley railroad. At Cleveland they were met by a delegation from the strikers and a band. All along the line of march the Akron men were enthusiastically received. After the performance, addresses were made by Business Agent Pratt of Cleveland, and James Mahoney and I. C. Secor of Akron.

LOOKING

For a New Organist.

Dr. and Mrs. Steane Have Left Akron.

Nothing Heard From Them For Two Weeks.

Many Creditors Are on the Anxious Seat.

Had Moved in Best Social Circles of City.

Two weeks ago Dr. and Mrs. Brice Steane left Akron for New York.

There is nothing extraordinary in the above announcement until some of the later developments are known.

Dr. Steane was the organist and choir master at St. Paul's Episcopal church. He came to Akron less than a year ago from Niles, Mich. In a few weeks he had made many friends. He was an accomplished musician and in addition to his duties at the church he had numerous pupils in voice culture. Among these were members of leading families of the city.

Dr. and Mrs. Steane moved in the best social circles of the city. They had the manners of cultured people. Dr. Steane's credit was soon gilt edged. He purchased freely, but in many instances the goods were obtained on credit. When he left Akron two weeks ago a large number of these accounts were unpaid.

Various estimates are made of the unpaid bills, some claiming that they aggregate $1,000. His known indebtedness is about $800. One of his creditors is John Hutton of Barborton Inn. He owes that gentleman $23 for board. A Cleveland merchant tailor has a large bill. A West Hill dressmaker has an account amounting to a considerable amount and there are many others who would be pleased to hear from the Doctor of Music.

The day that Dr. Steane left the city he called at the home of Rev. Dr. J. H. W. Blake, pastor of St. Paul's church, and said that he had received a telegram announcing the death of a relative in New York. He desired to leave that afternoon for the east. He had made arrangements to have his position filled at St. Paul's church the following Sunday. This was the last that was seen of Dr. Steane by Dr. Blake.

It was ascertained later that Dr. and Mrs. Steane had been making preparations to leave for several days. They had purchased two new trunks and had packed all their belongings. Instead of taking a train direct from Akron to New York, they left the city for Cleveland. At the postoffice Dr. Steane left word to have all his mail forwarded to the general delivery in New York city.

A member of the church said today that he did not believe Dr. Steane would return to Akron. This is evidently the opinion of the vestry of the church, as a special meeting was held Sunday night for the purpose of discussing the question of employing a new choir master and organist.

Dr. and Mrs. Steane made many warm friends while in Akron. They are slow to believe that he has left permanently. Others however express themselves freely in the matter. None of his creditors have succeeded in locating Dr. Steane, although it is believed that he is in New York.

PIONEER DEMOCRAT

Says Selection of John R. McLean Was Wise One.

Arthur Lillie of Lyons, Iowa, is the guest of H. H. Bliss of Northfield. Mr. Lillie, who has spent 45 years in Iowa, is one of the pioneer Democrats of Summit county, being 73 years of age.

His early days were spent in Northfield township, and for several years he taught school in Coventry township. Referring to the present situation in Ohio politics, Mr. Lillie said: "I think the Democrats have made a good selection in placing John R. McLean at the head of the ticket. I hope that he will win."

Plant Purchased.
The plant of the American Alumina company at Barborton has been purchased by The Carrara Paint company. The consideration was $15,000.

HUMOR

At the Buckeye Company's Office Today.

Sash Presented to Mr. R. P. Burnett by Fellow Workers.

Cashier R. P. Burnett, of Aultman Miller & company's office, is an enthusiastic Hannaiter. He is going to be in the parade Saturday. The office force gave him a present—a beautiful sash—and the orator, representing the committee, spoke as follows:

"Mr. Burnett, as your friends here will testify, I was notified that the doors here would be closed and that I would be held a prisoner until I would make a little speech.

"The company of gentlemen here represented, and ladies, wish to testify their appreciation of you as a Christian (applause) gentleman and a hero; for you are to be associated with heroes, as we understand, on next Saturday, on the occasion of the reception of Judge Nash and Gov. Roosevelt. I was a little surprised last evening in looking over the Beacon to find that there were so many functionaries on that occasion, and naturally I looked at the top of the list for the name of my friend Ralph P. Burnett, whom I knew would officiate on that occasion; but curiously enough they had put some other name there. I looked down through the list, and I didn't find the name of Mr. Burnett at all; and I am glad of this occasion that your friends are able to testify their appreciation of your virtues (for certain occasions); and without making any more words about it, I have the honor to present to you a testimonial of their appreciation. Please accept it."

At this juncture Mr. Burnett was handed a beautiful red silk sash, embellished with the blue star of the Cuban Republic, which nestled gracefully on his beautiful hip, as if feeling secure under the protection of so gallant a defender. Mr. Burnett replied in his usual pleasant way as follows:

"Gentlemen—I thank you very much for this token of your regard. I thought I was preparing myself for this occasion, having just supplied myself with this (unwrapping a package). You will have to ask Burnett what was in it to appreciate the joke. A fitting ornament to adorn myself with when under the leadership of that gallant leader, Lionel S. Pardee.

"The gentleman who has just spoken evidently didn't read the newspaper very carefully, because he would have found me there. (Again showing his own purchase he said:) I was merely getting prepared for the occasion. I have made a purchase.

"I see you have contributed liberally to this thing, and I wish to assure you that I will try my best to look dignified, if I can get the price of a horse to come out in nice shape."

In explanation of the above remark, it is proper to say that along with the gift of the beautiful sash, Mr. Burnett was presented with a written testimonial of the regard and esteem in which he is held by his fellow co-workers, also a list of their contributions, which you want to ask Burnett to show you to get your whole money's worth.

ROBBERY.

Diamond Ring Taken From a Girl's Finger.

Two Masked Burglars Entered a Carroll Street Residence.

A bold robbery occurred at 2 o'clock Thursday morning at 270 Carroll st. A diamond ring valued at $100 was stolen from Miss Sarah G. Beatty, and a revolver owned by Mrs. Souers was taken.

Two masked men entered the house through a window. Going to Miss Beatty's room they pointed two revolvers at her head and told her if she screamed they would blow her brains out. Miss Beatty remained silent and the diamond ring was slipped from her finger by one of the burglars.

The robbers are supposed to be young men, but their identity is unknown.

Mrs. Leiby's Funeral.

The funeral services of Mrs. Lydia Leiby, widow of Reuben, were conducted at the residence on E. Market st., and at Loyal Oak, Wednesday, by Rev. Geo. Harter, Internment at the High church cemetery, one mile north of Doylestown. Mrs. Leiby was aged 78 years. She is survived by two sons, four daughters, 20 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren.

BIG DAY

When Teddy Comes.

Democrats Will Join In the Shouting

And Help Republicans Entertain the Visitors.

Hanna's Barrel Put to a Severe Strain.

Railway Tickets and Provisions For the Faithful.

Indications are that the attendance at the Roosevelt meeting at Akron Saturday will be a record breaker so far as Akron is concerned. Indeed, it would not be surprising were the attendance to exceed that of any Republican campaign opening ever held in Ohio.

Mr. Nash's managers certainly secured a drawing card in Gov. Roosevelt. Judge Nash, Mark Hanna, and all other Ohio celebrities in whose behalf the meeting was planned, will be completely overshadowed and are in danger of being forgotten in the presence of Roosevelt.

The fact that this is going to be the only speech the fighting Governor will make in Ohio, will add materially to the size of the crowd.

Fine weather is all that is needed to make the meeting a big success insofar as attendance is concerned. Of course the Hanna barrel will have to stand the expense of bringing many hundreds of the marching delegates to Akron, and to provide them with uniforms and provisions, but the barrel is big and round and its contents ample to meet the draught upon it.

So far as the DEMOCRAT has been able to note, the local Republicans who have had charge of the arrangements for entertaining the crowd as the day gives promise of, have acquitted themselves to the credit of themselves and the city. The DEMOCRAT did not approve of their begging money from Akron's business men to pay the expenses of the occasion—Hanna's barrel ought to stand that—but aside from this their work gives one the impression that all of the many thousands of visitors who may reasonably be expected to come to Akron to hear Roosevelt will be home under the impression that Akron is a very enterprising, up-to-date and hospitable city.

So when Saturday comes you'll find Akron's Democrats ready to join with their Republican neighbors in the shouting, ready to help them welcome and entertain their guests. Then after it's all over; after the red fire's all burned and the brass bands have tooted themselves out, the Democrats will proceed to roll up a plurality for their ticket in Summit county.

At this writing the indications are that both Republicans and Democrats of Akron will get lost in the crowd from other places, but the Akron people may be depended upon to do their best to make themselves in evidence.

DASHED

Down the Grade at Frightful Speed.

Engineer Tod Ingham Jumped to Save Himself—Badly Injured.

Tod Ingham of this city, a well known C. A. & C. engineer, was seriously injured in a wreck at Glenmont, Tuesday night.

He is a son of Daniel Ingham of James st., one of the oldest passenger engineers on the C. A. & C. railroad.

A special from Glenmont gives the details of the wreck. It reads: "Tod Ingham, of Columbus, a popular C. A. & C. freight engineer, had a narrow escape from death at Glenmont last night. He was running freight 23 with orders to pass another freight at Glenmont. In coming down the hill north of Glenmont the train became uncontrollable and dashed into Glenmont at a terrific speed. The other freight train was only partially in the 'clear,' and fearing a collision, Mr. Ingham jumped. He was terribly bruised and injured, but will recover."
